Leadership Summit
Leading and Learning in the Digital Age
October 26-29, 2014 • Arlington, VA

SETDA
LEADERSHIP • TECHNOLOGY • INNOVATION • LEARNING
Spotlight on States

Academic Content in the Digital Age
Out of Print:
Reimagining the K-12 Textbook in a Digital Age

Leading and Learning in the Digital Age
October 2014 • Arlington, VA
Policy briefs

- The Accessibility of Learning Content for All Students, Including Students with Disabilities Must be Addressed in the Shift to Digital Instructional Materials
- Clarifying Ownership of Teacher-Created Digital Content Empowers Educators to Personalize Education, Address Individual Student Needs
- Two more to come:
  - Vetting digital content
  - Professional learning for educators about using digital content
Academic Content in the Digital Age

- Ron Nieto
  - Deputy Commissioner of Innovation, Florida DoE
- Alex MacDonald
  - Director, Instructional Technology, Idaho DoE
- Scott Cook
  - Content Director, Idaho DoE
- Discussant: Michael Jay
  - President, Educational Systemics
- Facilitator: Geoff Fletcher
  - Deputy Executive Director, SETDA